

MATER DOLOROSA PASSIONIST RETREAT CENTER

Mater Dolorosa is excited to welcome the community back to Tuesday Morning Mass at 8:30 a.m.

There are new guidelines in place requested by LA County, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the state of California that are meant to keep us all safe as we return to celebrate the Eucharist. Here is what to expect:

- You will need to make a reservation via Facebook to attend mass at Mater Dolorosa. We are limited to 35 people.
- Please stay home if you do not feel well. Mass will continue to be streamed live on Facebook.
- Masks are required.
- Physical distancing of 6 feet is required.
- You will have your temperature taken before entering the Chapel.
- Hand sanitizer will be available as you enter the Chapel.
- The Holy Water font will be kept dry.
- Hymnals and worship aids have been removed.
- Singing is currently not permitted.
- Please wave to one another at the sign of peace.
- Please form only 1 line for communion, remembering to keep 6 feet of physical distance.
- Communion will only be given in the hand.
- No cup will be shared during communion.
- Group will be dismissed in an orderly fashion to maintain physical distance.
- There will be no after mass social at this time.
